Cariboo Gold Star Trader At Vancouver

VANCOUVER — Cariboo Gold made an unusual appearance as the day's second most active stock. Over 25,000 shares changed hands with the closing price 1.48, up 14 cents on the day.

Other mines inclined easier with Bethlehem at 1.65, Sheep Creek at 1.63 and Midwest Copper at 29 cents.

Oils were firm with Fort St. John at 3.15, Vantor at 99 cents and Basco at 68 cents.

B.C. Telephone lost a fraction at $43¾ and B.C. Forest eased to $16½, but Crown Zellerbach Canada at $23½ and Woodwards at $22¾ were firm. Trans Mountain and Trans Canada each recorded gains in the pipelines.

Greyhawk in Slump

TORONTO (CP) — Industrials slipped back for the fifth straight session in light trading.

Industrials were the big losers as they dipped more than 1¾ points on index, their sharpest setback since March 16.

Greyhawk Uranium was the most active issue, off 4 cents at 6 cents, on a turnover of 409,500 shares. The company has announced it has suspended operations and made a voluntary assignment.

Arcan Corp. featured industrials, up ¾ at 5¾ on a turnover of 50,800 shares. It is rumored the company has a new sales arrangement for its electrical products pending. Loblaw Inc. had the big loss, off five points at 160.

Base metals rallied at the close cutting their early losses more than in half. International Nickel dipped 1 at 88 but Noranda added 1 at 51 and Labrador was up ½ at 28.

In golds Hollinger dipped ½ at 32½, pulling the group back.

Calgary and Edmonton dipped 1 at 27½ and Hudson's Bay lost ¼ at 18¾ in western oils.

Trading Slackens

MONTREAL (CP) — Prices on the industrial section were generally lower.

Trading slackened off in the afternoon in anticipation of the budget. Market sources also attribute the recent hesitancy in market to investors waiting for first quarter earnings to be published.

Thursday's decline was general with the six indexes showing losses.

Base metals had the biggest losses. Declines ranged to a point and a few new lows were reached.

Papers, banks, foods, constructions and western oils were lower in a fractional range.

Refining oils and pipelines were the only firm spots, while papers and utilities were mixed to slightly lower.

Mines and oils were irregularly lower.

New York Rallies

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks scored a good recovery from their lows late in the session and at the close the list ruled irregularly higher.

The advance was ragged, but at least brokers were heartened by the late recovery which turned many minus signs into plus signs.

Among the major groups, the drugs were about the strongest with the late buying sending American Home Products up better than three points. Vick Chemical recovered in the last half hour a loss of more than six points.

Steels were firm as a group. Chemicals were mixed. Gains of more than three points each in Texas Instruments and Litton gave the electronics a strong appearance.

The market's reversal late in the session was helped by good news from the auto industry.
